

Northern Health engages consumers from our community in Quality Improvement activities

We are seeking consumers to volunteer their time to engage with staff on the following working groups and projects. You can contribute by having a voice about what is important to patients and families when receiving health care to make sure it is delivered with the patient at the centre of everything we do.

Vacancies

- Choosing Wisely, working with clinicians in advising them about communication approaches with consumers, on the projects undertaken.
- Consumer Literacy Evaluation & Review Group (CLEAR), reviews patient information brochures in their development to be consumer friendly.
- Diversity: Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans and/or Intersex (LGBTI) Working Group
- Executive Patient Safety Walk Arouns, Monthly at our four campuses (Northern Hospital, Broadmeadows Hospital, Bundoora Extended Care Centre, Craigieburn Health Service.)
- ISS Food Services Tasting Sessions, Monthly at the Northern Hospital
- Maternity Project Partnership, Monthly meetings
- PJ Paralysis, a state-wide project to reduce patients functional decline whilst in hospital. Provide advice to engage patients to get up, dressed and mobilised by lunchtime.

The time commitment for the above activities would be approximately 2 hrs per meeting. Note: (committees and working groups meet monthly, or bi-monthly.)

This is a voluntary position, with support for expenses, including childcare.
