

Northern Health engages Consumers from our Community in Operational Quality & Safety Committees

Northern Health is seeking community members to join our Quality and Risk Management committees, that review and monitor - clinical audits, incidents, risks, patient feedback and quality improvement work.

We welcome community members to join our staff in bringing the consumer perspective to the work of these committees, through contributing your ideas and experience.

Clinical skills are not essential
Support and training will be provided

Vacancies

Quality and Risk Management Committees

- Surgical
- Women's & Children's
