

Research Week 2020 Oral Presentations

Oral Presentation session #1

Tuesday 6 October 2020

12.30-1.30pm

Presenter: Dr Julie Wang

Topic: Rivaroxaban and apixaban anti-Xa levels correlate poorly with degree of thrombin suppression

Bio: Dr Julie Wang is a haematologist/PhD candidate and recipient of a Northern Health Foundation PhD Scholarship.

Presenter: Dr Thomas Boland

Topic: Assessment of wound closure techniques in total hip arthroplasty at Northern Health

Bio: Dr Thomas Boland a Surgical HMO 2 at The Northern Hospital with a background in Exercise Science and Physiotherapy and is pursuing a career in Orthopaedic Surgery.

Presenter: Dr David Crosbie

Topic: So many Code Blues, so few arrests, why?

Bio: Staff Specialist Intensivist at Northern and Austin Hospitals, Medical Donation Specialist. Research interest in the epidemiology of hospitalised patients.

Presenter: Benjamin Hargreaves

Topic: Retrospective evaluation of preoperative anaemia management at a Melbourne metropolitan hospital

Bio: Benjamin is a final year medical student at the University of Melbourne, and after completing his clinical years at Northern Health will be returning next year for internship.

RESEARCH WEEK
5-9 OCTOBER 2020
INSPIRED RESEARCHERS
Northern Health